This character home offers ample space for the growing family. With five bedrooms, large timber kitchen with island bench and dishwasher, and a sunroom with access to the backyard, there's something for everyone. With extensive use of timber throughout, leadlight windows, ornate ceiling roses and wide verandahs, this home offers the warmth of yesteryear with the modern conveniences of gas heating and ducted air-conditioning. A central location provides easy access to the CBD, hospital, churches and schools; and a double garage, garden shed and neat yard complete this family home.
