1 Roberts Avenue Horsham VIC

4 2 3

This period-style home is a stone's throw from Horsham's main street, schools, daycare centers, and the local hospital and is also a short walk from the river's walking tracks. If you're looking for a spacious family home located in the heart of Horsham, look no further.

This home offers a spacious semi-open plan design with the kitchen, fitted with electric appliances, overlooking the dining and lounge areas. The lounge room has a bay window with a combustion wood heater and split system. The front sitting room has beautiful stained glass windows, built-in glass cupboards, and an open fireplace. Ducted natural gas heating and evaporative cooling for year-round comfort.

The master bedroom has walk-in and built-in robes and direct access to the large bathroom, which has dual access from the hallway. A bedroom that could be used as a private guest retreat, has an ensuite and split system, and would suit independent living or a growing family. There is also another large bedroom with built-in cupboards. The purposely
